1. PRELIMINARY

1.1 Introduction

The purpose of this plan of management is to outline the Council's obligations and commitments with respect to land in Ballina Shire owned by Council and classified as "community land" for the purposes of the Local Government Act 1993 (LG Act). This plan has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the LG Act with regard to the use and management of land classified as community land.

1.2 Land to which Plan Applies

This plan of management applies to all land owned by Ballina Shire Council and classified as community land for the purposes of the LG Act. The community land managed by Council at the time of adoption of this plan is listed in Schedule 1.

The provisions of this plan to not apply to:

- Operational land, or
- Crown land (managed by Council or devolved to Council), or
- Land leased by Council.

1.3 Relationship to Other Plans of Management

This plan of management contains the general management provisions applicable to all community land in Ballina Shire. The provisions of this plan of management do not apply any community land where a site specific plan of management has been made and adopted by Council after the commencement of this plan.

Upon adoption and commencement of this plan of management on 26 February 2015, the following plans of management are revoked:

Plan	Reference	Adopted
Principal Generic Plan of Management for Community Land (as amended)	12/36034	22 Jun 1995 (last amended Dec 2012)
Reservoir Sites Plan of Management	DW1772950	27 Jan 1994
Lyle Park Plan of Management	DW1772952	28 Apr 1994
Westlands Estate Plan of Management	DW1772949	27 Jan 1994
Bulwinkle Park Plan of Management	DW1772948	22 Sep 1994

1.4 Aims and Objectives

The aim of this plan is to provide a management framework for Council owned community land. The provisions contained within this plan are intended to achieve consistency between the community land management requirements of the LG Act and the strategic directions contained in Council's Community Strategic Plan: Our Community ... Our Future.

The LG Act specifies objectives for the management of community land. These objectives are contained in Section 4 and include general management objectives applicable to all community land as well as core objectives for various areas of community land based on its identified category.

The Community Strategic Plan encompasses the vision of achieving a quadruple bottom line of direction and accountability based the community's aspirations. The overarching directions and outcomes identified in the Community Strategic Plan are incorporated into this management plan.

1.5 Definitions

The following definitions apply to specified words and expressions used in this plan.

clubhouse means a building that may be exclusively occupied by a club or facility shared by multiple sporting or recreational groups and may include change rooms, toilets, training rooms, meeting rooms, kiosk, canteen, and/or a licensed bar area.

community facility has the same meaning as specified in the Ballina Local Environmental Plan 2012 and means a building or place:

sporting activities means those activities carried out by a sporting club including the playing of games and organised sporting events, training, holding meetings, social gatherings, fundraising activities and the like that are either undertaken by the club as the controlling body or by another group under sublease or hire.

1.6 Sections in this plan

PRELIMINARY

This section contains introductory and explanatory information to assist in the application and interpretation of the plan.

LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK

This section details the relevant legislative requirements as contained in the LG Act and EP&A Act that regulate and control the use of community land.

LAND REGISTER

This section briefly references Council's land register which provides current details of Council's land holdings and land managed by Council.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The general provisions detailed in this section of the plan apply to all areas of community land. The general provisions provide the primary land management principles for each category of community land.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

The special provisions detail management provisions applicable to specific community land sites that apply in addition to the general provisions. The special provisions provide, in accordance with the requirements of the LG Act, for the exclusive occupation and use of community land.

PERFORMANCE AND ASSESSMENT

This section contains the standard performance, achievement and assessment measures that will be applied by Council in the management of community land.

LAND REGISTER EXTRACT (SCHEDULE 1)

Schedule 1 details all the land parcels of community land managed by Council at the time of adoption of this plan. It also details the relevant category applied to the land which is used to determine the general management provisions that apply.

MULTI CATEGORY LAND MAPS (SCHEDULE 2)

Schedule 2 contains a set of maps detailing several areas of community land containing more than one category. These maps are provided to assist in the identification of applicable land management provisions for these sites.

2.1 Council owned land

The LG Act requires (in sections 25 and 26) that all public land in the ownership of Council must be classified as either "community" or "operational". Details of the classification of Council owned land is contained in Council's land register.

The "operational" and "community" land classifications are not specifically defined in the LG Act. However, for the purposes of Council's land register and this plan of management, the following general definitions are applied.

Operational land is owned by Council and classified such in accordance with the requirements of the LG Act. Land classified as operational land is usually not intended for use by the general public. It may include land held by Council as a temporary asset or as an investment, land which facilitates the carrying out by Council of its functions or land which may not be open to the general public. Council is able to deal with such land without restrictions under the LG Act. That is, Council may deal with operational land in the same manner as any other person may deal with private freehold land.

Community land is characterised as being land that:

- (a) is retained for community use;
- (b) cannot be sold (section 45(1));
- (c) cannot be leased for more than 21 years (section 46(3));
- (d) cannot be leased unless public notice is given (sections 47 & 47A); and
- (e) can only be used for purposes which are consistent with a plan of management (section 35).

2.2 Management of community land

Section 35 of the LG Act requires that community land is to be used and managed in accordance with a plan of management applying to the land. This plan of management seeks to satisfy the requirements of section 35 of the LG Act for community land in Ballina Shire. The LG Act further requires, in section 36, that a plan of management must categorise land based on its predominant use. The various categories provided in the LG Act are shown in Figure 1 and further detailed in section 4 of this plan.

2.3 Leasing and licensing of community land

Section 46 of the LG Act gives the Council power to grant a lease, licence or other estate in respect of community land subject to some limitations.

A lease is generally distinguished from a licence by the grant of exclusive occupancy over land for a relatively long period. Licences are generally for short term or periodic occupancy of land and/or the facilities thereon and do not provide for exclusive occupancy. Unlike a lease, the interest in a licence is not transferable between parties. An estate may include a formal or official recognition of interest, right, title or claim for the use and/or occupancy of an area of land.

The LG Act provisions generally restrict the granting of a lease, licence or other estate over community land to those uses providing for a community service or public purpose (see section 46 of the LG Act). For certain uses, any lease, licence or other estate granted for the exclusive use of community land must also be in accordance with an express authorisation in a plan of management. The special provisions in section 5 of this plan of management specify which areas of community land are authorised for exclusive occupation in accordance with the LG Act provisions.

Section 47D of the LG Act prohibits the exclusive occupation or exclusive use by any person of community land unless it is in accordance with a lease, licence or other estate granted under the provisions of the LG Act.

Clause 116 of the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 (LG Regulation) prescribes the following events on community land as purposes for which Council can grant a licence on a short-term, casual basis:

- (a) the playing of a musical instrument, or singing, for fee or reward,
- (b) engaging in a trade or business,
- (c) the playing of a lawful game or sport,
- (d) the delivery of a public address,

- (e) commercial photographic sessions,
- (f) picnics and private celebrations such as weddings and family gatherings,
- (g) filming sessions, or
- (h) the agistment of stock.

The use or occupation of community land for these purposes is prescribed only if the use or occupation does not involve the erection of any building or structure of a permanent nature.

Clause 116 of the LG Regulation also specifies the following as being short-term, casual purposes:

- The use of any existing road or fire trail on community land to transport building materials and equipment required in relation to building work that is to be, or is being, carried out on land adjoining the community land, or to remove waste that is consequential on such work, and
- The use of any community land that does not have an existing road or fire trail to transport building materials and equipment required in relation to building work that is to be, or is being, carried out on land adjoining the community land, or to remove waste that is consequential on such work, if such work is for the physical, cultural, social and intellectual welfare or development of persons.

2.4 Regulatory controls over community land

Community land is defined as a public place under the provisions of the LG Act. Legislative provisions give Council the authority to regulate activities and behaviour in public places, confiscate or impound equipment and issue penalties. The LG Act (section 632) provides that a person is guilty of an offence in a public place if they fail to comply with the terms of a notice that may relate to any of the following:

- (a) the payment of a fee for entry to or the use of the place;
- (b) the use of a vehicle in the place;
- (c) the taking of any animal or thing into the place;
- (d) the use of any animal or thing in the place;
- (e) the doing of any thing in the place; or
- (f) the use of the land or any part of the place.

Activities Approvals

Section 68 of the LG Act specifies certain activities on community land that require Council approval. These include:

- (a) Engaging in a trade or business,
- (b) Directing or procuring a theatrical, musical or other entertainment for the public,
- (c) Construction of a temporary enclosure for the purpose of entertainment,
- (d) For fee or reward, playing a musical instrument or singing,

- (e) Setting up, operating or using a loudspeaker or sound amplifying device, and/or
- (f) Delivering a public address or holding a religious service or public meeting.

Council has a number of adopted policies that outline the procedures and guidelines for undertaking use of public land. These include an Events Policy, Filming Policy and Commercial Activities on Public Land Policy.

2.5 Development consent requirements

The use of community land is subject to the regulatory provisions under the EP&A Act and any relevant environmental planning instruments and planning policies that may apply to the land. Land uses and development on community land must be permissible on the land as development permitted with or without consent, complying development or exempt development.

3. LAND REGISTER

The details of all Council's land holdings, including Crown land in which Council has an interest, is contained in Council's land register. The land register is a public document established and maintained in accordance with the provisions of section 53 of the LG Act. The land register specifies the classification of Council owned land (as either community land or operational land) as well as those parcels of Crown land in Council's care and control.

The land register is regularly updated as ownership and details of land parcels change. Interested persons should contact Council to obtain the most updated details where necessary. A copy of Council's land register can be made available to interested persons upon request.

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

4.1 Introduction

Council is required to prepare a plan of management for community land that addresses the requirements of the LG Act. Section 36 of the LG Act requires that a plan of management for community land must identify the following:

- the category of the land,
- the objectives and performance targets of the plan with respect to the land,
- the means by which the Council proposes to achieve the plan's objectives and performance targets, and
- the manner in which the council proposes to assess its performance with respect to the plan's objectives and performance targets, and may require the prior approval of the council to the carrying out of any specified activity on the land.

The LG Act also requires that where a plan of management contains provisions applying to just one area of community land, it must:

- describe the condition of the land and of any buildings or other improvements on the land as at the date of adoption of the plan,
- describe the use of the land and any such buildings or improvements as at the date of the plan,
- specify the purpose for which the land, and any such buildings or improvements, will be permitted to be used,
- specify the purposes for which any further developments of the land will be permitted, whether under lease or license or otherwise, and
- describe the scale and intensity of any such permitted use or development.

For the purposes of applying the management provisions in the LG Act, community land is to be categorised as one or more of the following:

- a natural area,
- a sportsground,
- a park,
- an area of cultural significance, and/or
- general community use.

Further to the above, where community land is categorised as a natural area, it is to be further categorised as one or more of the following:

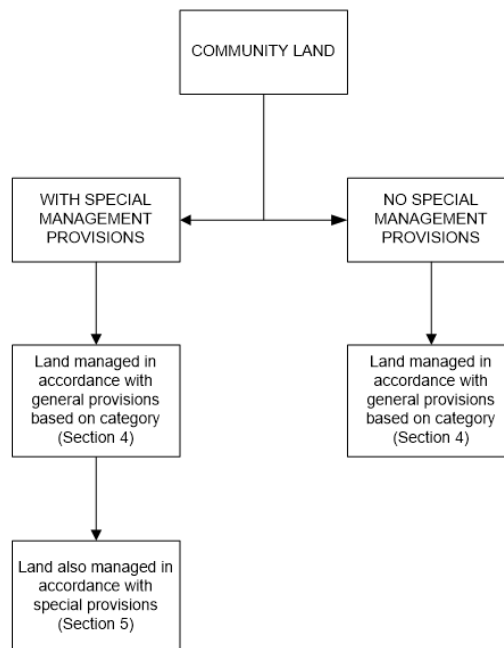

- bushland,
- wetland,
- escarpment,
- watercourse,
- foreshore, and/or
- a category prescribed by the regulations.

Details of the land to which the provisions of this plan of management applies, including the categorisation of the land, is contained in Schedule 1.

Categorisation

All land classified as community land has been categorised in accordance with the requirements of the LG Act as detailed above. Details of the categorisations applied to community land in Ballina Shire are contained in Schedule 1 and in Council's Land Register<sup>1</sup>. The process for determining the applicable management provisions for community land based on its categorisation is shown in Figure 2.

Some areas of community land in Ballina Shire have been assigned multiple categories based on differing land uses within a single community land holding. A series of maps detailing areas of community land subject to multiple categories is contained in Schedule 2.

<sup>1</sup> The land register is maintained separately from this plan of management as it is frequently updated to reflect changes in land details and ownership.

Separate Plans of Management

The LG Act requires a separate plan of management in circumstances that involve:

- Land declared to be critical habitat under the Threatened Species Conservation Act 1995 (section 36A),
- Land directly affected by a recovery plan or a threat abatement plan (section 36B(2)),
- Known natural, geological, geomorphological, scenic or other features that Council considers warrant protection or special management or a wildlife corridor (section 36C), or
- Land that is categorised as "an area of cultural significance" (section 36D(2)).

As at the date of this plan of management there is no land in Ballina Shire directly affected by any of the above circumstances.

4.2 Application of General and Specific Provisions

This plan of management applies to all land in Ballina Shire classified as community land. The general provisions in this section apply to all parcels of community land to which this plan applies. Section 5 contains specific provisions that apply to certain sites in addition to the general provisions. Specific provisions have been applied to recognise unique features of the land, to authorise specific land uses and/or to authorise the leasing/licensing of the land or buildings contained on the land.

4.3 General objectives

The general objectives for the management of community land are:

- (a) To provide a framework that has general public acceptance for the future development and management of the land.
- (b) To provide facilities for the social, cultural, educational and recreational needs of Ballina Shire.
- (c) To categorise community land based on the predominant and expected use of the land in accordance with the requirements of the LG Act.
- (d) To manage the use of community land to ensure it is consistent with the specified core objectives applicable to each community land category.
- (e) To enable, where appropriate, commercial activities on community land where these activities are consistent with applicable management provisions and statutory requirements.
- (f) To provide appropriate maintenance and embellishment of community land within Council's budgetary constraints and community expectations.

4.4 Core objectives

The core objectives as specified in the LG Act for the management of community land are as follows:

4.4.1 Land Categorised as a Natural Area

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as a natural area are:

- (a) to conserve biodiversity and maintain ecosystem function in respect of the land, or the feature or habitat in respect of which the land is categorised as a natural area, and
- (b) to maintain the land, or that feature or habitat, in its natural state and setting, and
- (c) to provide for the restoration and regeneration of the land, and
- (d) to provide for community use of and access to the land in such a manner as will minimise and mitigate any disturbance caused by human intrusion, and
- (e) to assist in and facilitate the implementation of any provisions restricting the use and management of the land that are set out in a recovery plan or threat abatement plan prepared under the Threatened Species Conservation Act 1995 or the Fisheries Management Act 1994.

4.4.2 Land Categorised as a Sportsground

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as a sportsground are:

- (a) to encourage, promote and facilitate recreational pursuits in the community involving organised and informal sporting activities and games, and
- (b) to ensure that such activities are managed having regard to any adverse impact on nearby residences.

4.4.3 Land Categorised as a Park

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as a park are:

- (a) to encourage, promote and facilitate recreational, cultural, social and educational pastimes and activities, and
- (b) to provide for passive recreational activities or pastimes and for the casual playing of games, and
- (c) to improve the land in such a way as to promote and facilitate its use to achieve the other core objectives for its management.

4.4.4 Land Categorised as an Area of Cultural Significance

- (1) The core objectives for management of community land categorised as an area of cultural significance are to retain and enhance the cultural significance of the area (namely its Aboriginal, aesthetic, archaeological, historical, technical or research or social significance) for past, present or future generations by the active use of conservation methods.

- (2) Those conservation methods may include any or all of the following methods:
- (a) the continuous protective care and maintenance of the physical material of the land or of the context and setting of the area of cultural significance,
  - (b) the restoration of the land, that is, the returning of the existing physical material of the land to a known earlier state by removing accretions or by reassembling existing components without the introduction of new material,
  - (c) the reconstruction of the land, that is, the returning of the land as nearly as possible to a known earlier state,
  - (d) the adaptive reuse of the land, that is, the enhancement or reinforcement of the cultural significance of the land by the introduction of sympathetic alterations or additions to allow compatible uses (that is, uses that involve no changes to the cultural significance of the physical material of the area, or uses that involve changes that are substantially reversible or changes that require a minimum impact),
  - (e) the preservation of the land, that is, the maintenance of the physical material of the land in its existing state and the retardation of deterioration of the land.
- (3) A reference in subsection (2) to land includes a reference to any buildings erected on the land.

4.4.5 Land Categorised as General Community Use

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as general community use are to promote, encourage and provide for the use of the land, and to provide facilities on the land, to meet the current and future needs of the local community and of the wider public:

- (a) in relation to public recreation and the physical, cultural, social and intellectual welfare or development of individual members of the public, and
- (b) in relation to purposes for which a lease, licence or other estate may be granted in respect of the land (other than the provision of public utilities and works associated with or ancillary to public utilities).

4.4.6 Land Categorised as Bushland

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as bushland are:

- (a) to ensure the ongoing ecological viability of the land by protecting the ecological biodiversity and habitat values of the land, the flora and fauna (including invertebrates, fungi and micro-organisms) of the land and other ecological values of the land, and
- (b) to protect the aesthetic, heritage, recreational, educational and scientific values of the land, and
- (c) to promote the management of the land in a manner that protects and enhances the values and quality of the land and facilitates public enjoyment of the land, and to implement measures directed to minimising or mitigating any disturbance caused by human intrusion, and

- (d) to restore degraded bushland, and
- (e) to protect existing landforms such as natural drainage lines, watercourses and foreshores, and
- (f) to retain bushland in parcels of a size and configuration that will enable the existing plant and animal communities to survive in the long term, and
- (g) to protect bushland as a natural stabiliser of the soil surface.

4.4.7 Land Categorised as Wetland

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as wetland are:

- (a) to protect the biodiversity and ecological values of wetlands, with particular reference to their hydrological environment (including water quality and water flow), and to the flora, fauna and habitat values of the wetlands, and
- (b) to restore and regenerate degraded wetlands, and
- (c) to facilitate community education in relation to wetlands, and the community use of wetlands, without compromising the ecological values of wetlands.

4.4.8 Land Categorised as an Escarpment

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as an escarpment are:

- (a) to protect any important geological, geomorphological or scenic features of the escarpment, and
- (b) to facilitate safe community use and enjoyment of the escarpment.

4.4.9 Land Categorised as a Watercourse

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as a watercourse are:

- (a) to manage watercourses so as to protect the biodiversity and ecological values of the instream environment, particularly in relation to water quality and water flows, and
- (b) to manage watercourses so as to protect the riparian environment, particularly in relation to riparian vegetation and habitats and bank stability, and
- (c) to restore degraded watercourses, and
- (d) to promote community education, and community access to and use of the watercourse, without compromising the other core objectives of the category.

4.4.10 Land Categorised as Foreshore

The core objectives for management of community land categorised as foreshore are:

- (a) to maintain the foreshore as a transition area between the aquatic and the terrestrial environment, and to protect and enhance all functions associated with the foreshore's role as a transition area, and
- (b) to facilitate the ecologically sustainable use of the foreshore, and to mitigate impact on the foreshore by community use.

5.1 Introduction

This section contains provisions that apply specifically to certain areas of community land in accordance with section 36(3A) of the LG Act. These special provisions are supplementary to the general provisions contained in section 4. The special provisions recognise unique features of specified community land and may authorise specific land uses and/or authorise the granting of a lease, licence or other estate over the land or buildings contained thereon.

The special provisions are listed in based on the land identification number in Council's land register. The details of all community land to which this plan of management applies, including details of the categorisation of the land and whether special provisions apply, is contained in Council's Land Register. Schedule 1 contains the details of the community land parcels managed by Council at the time of adoption of this plan of management.

Any exclusive occupation of community land or buildings located on community land as provided by these special provisions shall only be by way of a formal lease, licence or other agreement entered into between the occupying party and Ballina Shire Council. Any lease, licence or other agreement entered into as facilitated by this plan of management shall be undertaken in accordance with the provisions of Council's policy on leasing/licensing/agreements as applicable at the time of execution.

SCHEDULE 2 - MULTI-CATEGORY LAND MAPS

Clause 113 of the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 requires that where a parcel of community land is subject to more than one category, the plan of management must clearly identify these areas by a map or otherwise. Those parcels of community land in Ballina Shire subject to multiple categories are detailed in this schedule.
