Action required	Council to Implement

Commencement of the new Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW and Procedures

What's new or changing

- The new 2018 Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW (the Model Code of Conduct) and Procedures for the Administration of the Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW (Procedures) have now been prescribed under the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005. The new prescribed Model Code of Conduct and Procedures are available on OLG's website.
- Provisions governing the use of social media (clause 8.21) in the previously released version of the Model Code of Conduct issued on 5 September 2018 have been removed. However, it remains open to councils to adopt this provision as a supplementary provision of their code of conduct, should they choose to do so.

What this will mean for your council

- Councils have six months from the date of prescription, (14 December 2018 – 14 June 2019) to adopt a code of conduct and procedures based on the prescribed Model Code of Conduct and Procedures. The transitional arrangements for the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures are set out below.
- Councils' complaints coordinators should bring this circular and the attached FAQ to the attention of their council's conduct reviewers. Complaints coordinators should also inform conduct reviewers when the council has adopted a new code of conduct and procedures and provide copies.
- Councils should review their existing panels of conduct reviewers and determine to appoint a new panel using the expression of interest process prescribed under the Procedures if they have not done so in the past four years. Councils may appoint shared panels with other councils including through a joint organisation or another regional body associated with the councils.

Key points

- Councils' existing adopted codes of conduct and procedures will remain in force until such time as councils adopt a new code of conduct and procedures

10.7 Policy (Review) - Model Code of Conduct.DOC

based on the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures prescribed under the Regulation.

- If a council fails to adopt a new code of conduct and procedures based on the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures within six months of their prescription, the provisions of the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures will automatically override any provisions of a council's adopted code of conduct and procedures that are inconsistent with those contained in the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures through the operation of sections 440(4) and 440AA(4) of the Local Government Act 1993 (unless the inconsistent provisions of a council's adopted code of conduct are more onerous than those contained in the Model Code of Conduct).
- In adopting a new code of conduct and procedures, councils may include provisions that are supplementary to those contained in the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures. Councils may also impose more onerous requirements under their adopted codes of conduct than those prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct. However, councils must not dilute the standards prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct in their adopted codes of conduct.
- Some councils indicated in their feedback on the consultation draft of the Model Code of Conduct a preference for adopting separate codes of conduct for councillors, staff and delegates and committee members instead of a single code of conduct that applies to all council officials. To assist councils to do this, OLG has prepared bespoke versions of the Model Code of Conduct for councillors, staff and delegates and committee members for adoption, instead of a single code of conduct, should councils wish to do so.
- Code of conduct complaints must be assessed against the standards prescribed under the version of the council's code of conduct that was in force at the time the conduct the subject of the complaint is alleged to have occurred.
- Code of conduct complaints must be dealt with in accordance with the version of the council's procedures that were in force at the time the complaint was made.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the purpose of the Model Code of Conduct?

The Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW prescribes the minimum ethical and behavioural standards all council officials in NSW are required to comply with. In doing so it seeks to:

- prescribe uniform minimum ethical and behavioural standards for all councils in NSW
- provide clear guidance to council officials on the minimum ethical and behavioural standards expected of them as council officials
- provide clear guidance to local communities on the minimum ethical and behavioural standards they can expect of the council officials who serve them
- promote transparency and accountability
- promote community confidence in the integrity of the decisions councils make and the functions they exercise on behalf of their local communities, and
- promote community confidence in the institution of local government.

How is the Model Code of Conduct prescribed?

The Model Code of Conduct is prescribed under section 440 of the Local Government Act 1993 (LGA) and the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 (the Regulation).

Under section 440 of the LGA, each council is required to adopt a code of conduct based on the Model Code of Conduct prescribed under the Regulation. Councils may enhance or strengthen the standards prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct in their adopted codes of conduct to make them more onerous. Councils may also supplement the provisions contained in the Model Code of Conduct with additional provisions in their adopted codes of conduct.

However, councils cannot dilute or weaken the standards prescribed in the Model Code of Conduct in their adopted codes of conduct. Provisions contained in a council's adopted code of conduct that are less onerous than those prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct will be invalid and the equivalent provisions of the Model Code of Conduct will override them through the operation of section 440 of the LGA.

How are the Procedures prescribed?

The Procedures for the Administration of the Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW are prescribed under section 440AA of the LGA and the Regulation. Under section 440AA, each council is required to adopt procedures for the administration of their adopted code of conduct based on the Model Procedures prescribed under the LGA and Regulation. Councils' adopted procedures may contain provisions that supplement the Model Procedures, but a council's adopted procedure has no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with the Model Procedures prescribed under the Regulation.

Are joint organisations and county councils required to adopt the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures?

Yes.

Who does the Model Code of Conduct apply to?

Section 440 of the LGA specifies the classes of council officials that a Model Code of Conduct prescribed under the Regulation may apply to. Under section 440, a Model Code of Conduct may be prescribed that applies to councillors, members of staff of councils and delegates of councils. For this reason, the Model Code of Conduct prescribed under the Regulation only applies to councillors, council staff and delegates of councils (including members of committees that are delegates of councils). These are all defined as "council officials" for the purposes of the Model Code of Conduct and the Procedures.

Section 440 also allows regulations to be made to apply the provisions of the Model Code of Conduct relating to the disclosure of pecuniary interests to members of a committee of a council (including the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee) and advisers to councils. A regulation has been made to give effect to this and the new Model Code of Conduct contains provisions prescribing the obligations of committee members and advisers to councils in relation to the disclosure of pecuniary interests.

What is the regulatory scope of the Model Code of Conduct?

The Model Code of Conduct applies to any conduct by a "council official" that is connected with their role as a council official or the exercise of their functions as a council official.

It is the personal responsibility of all council officials to ensure that their conduct complies with the ethical and behavioural standards prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct. This applies to both the exercise by council officials of their functions as a council official and any conduct (including in a private capacity) that is connected with their role as a council official.

Can councils adopt separate codes of conduct for councillors, staff and delegates and committee members?

Yes. Some councils indicated in their feedback on the consultation draft of the Model Code of Conduct, a preference for adopting separate codes of conduct for councillors, staff and delegates and committee members instead of a single code of conduct applying to all council officials.

There is nothing to prevent councils from doing so, provided that the adopted codes of conduct, taken together as a package, reflect all the provisions contained in the prescribed Model Code of Conduct and are consistent with it. To assist councils to do this, OLG has prepared bespoke versions of the Model Code of Conduct for councillors, staff and delegates and committee members for adoption instead of a single code of conduct for councils wishing to do this.

Can a council extend the application of its adopted code of conduct to persons other than councillors, council staff and delegates of council?

Yes. There is nothing under the LGA to prevent a council, when adopting a code of conduct based on the Model Code of Conduct, to extend its application to persons other than councillors, council staff and delegates of council.

In adopting a code of conduct based on the Model Code of Conduct, councils may amend the provisions of the Model Code of Conduct and the associated Procedures to extend their application to contractors, community members of wholly advisory committees and/or volunteers. In doing so, to be effective, councils will also need to make it a condition of a contractor's engagement or volunteer's or advisory committee member's appointment that they comply with the council's adopted code of conduct.

How many iterations of the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures have there been?

The Model Code of Conduct has been reviewed every four years to address new and emerging issues and to reflect shifting community standards and expectations. The 2018 version of the Model Code of Conduct is the fourth iteration. The first iteration of the Model Code of Conduct was prescribed in January 2005 in support of amendments to the LGA that required the adoption of a code of conduct based on a prescribed Model Code of Conduct. Before this, councils were free to adopt their own codes of conduct with the result that ethical standards varied from council to council.

The 2018 version of the Procedures is the second iteration. The first iteration of the Procedures was prescribed in March 2013 in support of amendments to the LGA that required the adoption of procedures for the administration of council's adopted codes of conduct based on a prescribed Model Procedure.

Why was the new Model Code of Conduct developed?

The new 2018 version of the Model Code of Conduct gives effect to a key reform made by amendments passed by the NSW Parliament to consolidate the prescription of all ethical standards for local government into a single statutory instrument. Previously, ethical standards were prescribed from three sources, the pecuniary interest provisions of the LGA and the Regulation and the Model Code of Conduct.

Consolidating all ethical standards into a single instrument will:

- result in a better understanding of, and compliance, with ethical standards - council officials will no longer need to be familiar with their obligations prescribed from three separate statutory sources, the LGA, the Regulation and the Model Code of Conduct
- allow pecuniary interest breaches by councillors to be treated as "misconduct", meaning that minor breaches can be dealt with by the Chief Executive of OLG as an alternative to referral to the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (NCAT) and suspensions for pecuniary interest breaches will be counted towards disqualification for the purposes of the "three strikes" automatic disqualification
- allow greater flexibility and efficiency in updating the standards to address emerging issues – amendments will now be able to be made by way of a Regulation amendment.

How were the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures developed?

Moving the pecuniary interest provisions to the Model Code of Conduct necessitated a rewrite of the Model Code of Conduct. As part of this process, it was decided to also undertake a comprehensive review of the existing provisions of the Model Code of Conduct (as part of the regular four-year review cycle) and the Procedures.

In undertaking the review, OLG consulted extensively with councils and other stakeholders. In developing the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures, there have been two rounds of public consultation:

- in late 2016, submissions were invited suggesting changes and improvements to the existing Model Code of Conduct and Procedures

10.7 Policy (Review) - Model Code of Conduct.DOC

- based on the feedback received from the first round of consultation, consultation drafts of the proposed new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures were developed and issued for comment.

The final versions of the 2018 Model Code of Conduct and Procedures have been informed by the comment received in response to the consultation drafts.

What changes have been made in the 2018 version of the Model Code of Conduct?

The most obvious change is that the pecuniary interest provisions previously contained in the LGA and Regulation have now been included in the Model Code of Conduct.

One of the recurrent themes of the feedback received in the first round of consultation on the new Model Code of Conduct was that the "principles-based" approach to prescribing ethical and behavioural standards in the previous version of the Model Code of Conduct resulted in some of the prescribed standards being too vague, meaning that the ethical and behavioural standards expected of council officials were unclear and that almost anything could potentially constitute a breach of a council's code of conduct. In response to this, the Model Code of Conduct has been substantially redrafted to be more prescriptive and to more clearly identify the behaviours that it seeks to deter.

Other key changes include:

- new standards relating to discrimination and harassment, bullying, work health and safety, behaviour at meetings, access to information and maintenance of council records
- new rules governing the acceptance of gifts including mandatory reporting
- a new ongoing disclosure requirement for councillors and designated persons requiring disclosure of new interests in returns of interests within three months of becoming aware of them
- councillors will be required to disclose in their returns of interests whether they are a property developer or a close associate of a property developer.

What changes have been made to the previously approved version of the Model Code of Conduct posted on OLG's website on 5 September 2018?

Provisions governing the use of social media (clause 8.21) in the previously released version of the Model Code issued on 5 September 2018 have been removed. However, it remains open to councils to adopt this provision as a supplementary provision of their code of conduct, should they choose to do so. Should councils require further assistance in relation to this, they may contact OLG's Council Governance Team.

What changes have been made in the 2018 version of the Procedures?

In response to feedback, changes have been made to the Procedures to address the following issues:

- the role of the general manager in the receipt and initial management of code of conduct complaints about councillors
- the ability of complainants, who are unhappy with decisions of the council, to misuse councils' codes of conduct by repackaging routine complaints as "code of conduct complaints"

- the lack of recourse against members of the public who inappropriately disclose information about complaints they have made under a council's code of conduct.

These changes are outlined below:

How can councils outsource and centralise the management of complaints about councillors through regional arrangements under the new Procedures?

The new Procedures have sought to address concerns about the role of the general manager in the receipt and initial management of code of conduct complaints about councillors by giving general managers (and mayors in the case of complaints about the general manager) the flexibility to delegate their functions under the Procedures to another member of staff or a person external to the council.

The new Procedures have also been designed to allow councils to centralise the management of code of conduct complaints through a joint organisation, a regional organisation of councils or another shared arrangement should they choose to do so. This could be done, for example, through the establishment of a broader internal ombudsman function in a joint organisation or regional organisation of councils or through another shared arrangement to service member councils.

In particular:

- councils are able to establish and maintain regional panels of conduct reviewers through a joint or regional organisation of councils or another shared arrangement
- a staff member of a joint or regional organisation of councils or another member council can (in consultation with and through the executive officer of the joint organisation or general manager of the employer council) be appointed by general managers of member councils as the complaints coordinator for all member councils
- general managers and mayors of member councils can (in consultation with and through the executive officer of the joint organisation or general manager of the employer council) delegate their complaints management functions under the Procedures to a joint organisation or regional organisation of councils or to a staff member of another member council
- councils' internal ombudsman may, with the approval of OLG, be appointed to a panel of conduct reviewers allowing them to exercise the functions of a conduct reviewer, subject to their being able to meet the qualification criteria for conduct reviewers and being able to demonstrate to OLG's satisfaction a requisite degree of independence from member councils.

This offers a number potential benefits:

- centralisation of these functions through a joint organisation, a regional organisation of councils or another shared arrangement has the potential to deliver efficiencies and economies of scale and allows the development of a body of expertise within the region in the management of code of conduct complaints
- it allows general managers and mayors to divest themselves of the sometimes onerous responsibilities associated with code of conduct complaints management, allowing them to focus on their core responsibilities
- it allows all code of conduct complaints about mayors, councillors and general managers to be managed independently of the councils they relate to.

How do the new Procedures address misuse of councils' codes of conduct?

The purpose of a council's code of conduct is to prescribe the ethical and behavioural standards council officials are expected to comply with. The purpose of the Procedures is to support the enforcement of those standards. Consistent with this, councils' codes of conduct should not be used to deal with routine complaints.

The definition of a "code of conduct complaint" under the new Procedures has been tightened up to address the potential for misuse of councils' codes of conduct to re-litigate council decisions a person may disagree with or to re-prosecute complaints that have previously been addressed under councils' routine complaints management processes.

To be a code of conduct complaint, a complaint must show or tend to show conduct on the part of a council official in connection with their role as a council official or the exercise of their functions as a council official that would constitute a breach of the standards of conduct prescribed under the council's code of conduct. Complaints that do not meet this definition of a "code of conduct complaint" must not be dealt with under the Procedures and are to be dealt with under councils' routine complaints management processes.

The new Procedures make it clear that the following are not code of conduct complaints:

- complaints about the standard or level of service provided by a council or a council official
- complaints that relate solely to the merits of a decision made by a council or a council official or the exercise of a discretion by a council or a council official
- complaints about the policies or procedures of a council
- complaints about the conduct of a council official arising from the exercise of their functions in good faith, whether or not involving error, that would not otherwise constitute a breach of the standards of conduct prescribed under the council's code of conduct.

What recourse do the new Procedures provide against persons who inappropriately disclose information about code of complaints they have made?

Allegations of breaches of a council's code of conduct must not be made publicly and information about code of conduct complaints and the consideration of code of conduct complaints is not to be publicly disclosed. This is to ensure the allegations are dealt with appropriately and fairly in accordance with the prescribed Procedures for the management of code of conduct complaints.

While council officials disclosing this information may face disciplinary action, under the previous Procedures there was no recourse against members of the public who did so. Under the new Procedures, where members of the public publicly disclose information about a code of conduct complaint they have made, general managers can determine, with OLG's consent, that the complainant is to receive no further information about their complaint and any future code of conduct complaints they make (subject to the requirements of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009).

When must councils adopt a new code of conduct and procedures based on the new prescribed Model Code of Conduct and Procedures?

Councils have six months from the date of prescription, (14 December 2018 – 14 June 2019) to adopt a code of conduct and procedures based on the prescribed Model Code of Conduct and Procedures.

What are the transitional arrangements for the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures?

The following transitional arrangements apply to the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures:

- Councils' existing adopted codes of conduct and procedures will remain in force until such time as councils adopt a new code of conduct and procedures based on the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures prescribed under the Regulation.
- If a council fails to adopt a new code of conduct and procedures based on the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures within six months of their prescription, the provisions of the new Model Code of Conduct and Procedures will automatically override any provisions of a council's adopted code of conduct and procedures that are inconsistent with those contained in the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures through the operation of sections 440(4) and 440AA(4) of the LGA (unless the inconsistent provisions of a council's adopted code of conduct are more onerous than those contained in the Model Code of Conduct).
- In adopting a new code of conduct and procedures, councils may include provisions that are supplementary to those contained in the Model Code of Conduct and Procedures. Councils may also impose more onerous requirements under their adopted codes of conduct than those prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct. However, councils must not dilute the standards prescribed under the Model Code of Conduct in their adopted codes of conduct.
- Code of conduct complaints must be assessed against the standards prescribed under the version of the council's code of conduct that was in force at the time the conduct the subject of the complaint is alleged to have occurred.
- Code of conduct complaints must be dealt with in accordance with the version of the council's procedures that was in force at the time the complaint was made.

Part 1:

Introduction

This Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW ("the Model Code of Conduct") is made under section 440 of the Local Government Act 1993 ("LGA") and the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 ("the Regulation").

The Model Code of Conduct sets the minimum standards of conduct for council officials. It is prescribed by regulation to assist council officials to:

- understand and comply with the standards of conduct that are expected of them
- enable them to fulfil their statutory duty to act honestly and exercise a reasonable degree of care and diligence (section 439)
- act in a way that enhances public confidence in local government.

Section 440 of the LGA requires every council (including county councils) and joint organisation to adopt a code of conduct that incorporates the provisions of the Model Code of Conduct. A council's or joint organisation's adopted code of conduct may also include provisions that supplement the Model Code of Conduct and that extend its application to persons that are not "council officials" for the purposes of the Model Code of Conduct (eg volunteers, contractors and members of wholly advisory committees).

A council's or joint organisation's adopted code of conduct has no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with the Model Code of Conduct. However, a council's or joint organisation's adopted code of conduct may prescribe requirements that are more onerous than those prescribed in the Model Code of Conduct.

Councillors, administrators, members of staff of councils, delegates of councils, (including members of council committees that are delegates of a council) and any other person a council's adopted code of conduct applies to, must comply with the applicable provisions of their council's code of conduct. It is the personal responsibility of council officials to comply with the standards in the code and to regularly review their personal circumstances and conduct with this in mind.

Failure by a councillor to comply with the standards of conduct prescribed under this code constitutes misconduct for the purposes of the LGA. The LGA provides for a range of penalties that may be imposed on councillors for misconduct, including suspension or disqualification from civic office. A councillor who has been suspended on three or more occasions for misconduct is automatically disqualified from holding civic office for five years.

Failure by a member of staff to comply with a council's code of conduct may give rise to disciplinary action.

Note: References in the Model Code of Conduct to councils are also to be taken as references to county councils and joint organisations.

Note: In adopting the Model Code of Conduct, joint organisations should adapt it to substitute the terms "board" for "council", "chairperson" for "mayor", "voting representative" for "councillor" and "executive officer" for "general manager".

Note: In adopting the Model Code of Conduct, county councils should adapt it to substitute the term "chairperson" for "mayor" and "member" for "councillor".

Binding caucus votes

- 3.15 You must not participate in binding caucus votes in relation to matters to be considered at a council or committee meeting.
- 3.16 For the purposes of clause 3.15, a binding caucus vote is a process whereby a group of councillors are compelled by a threat of disciplinary or other adverse action to comply with a predetermined position on a matter before the council or committee, irrespective of the personal views of individual members of the group on the merits of the matter before the council or committee.
- 3.17 Clause 3.15 does not prohibit councillors from discussing a matter before the council or committee prior to considering the matter in question at a council or committee meeting, or from voluntarily holding a shared view with other councillors on the merits of a matter.
- 3.18 Clause 3.15 does not apply to a decision to elect the mayor or deputy mayor, or to nominate a person to be a member of a council committee or a representative of the council on an external body.

Obligations in relation to meetings

- 3.19 You must comply with rulings by the chair at council and committee meetings or other proceedings of the council unless a motion dissenting from the ruling is passed.

What is a pecuniary interest?

- 4.1 A pecuniary interest is an interest that you have in a matter because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to you or a person referred to in clause 4.3.
- 4.2 You will not have a pecuniary interest in a matter if the interest is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be regarded as likely to influence any decision you might make in relation to the matter, or if the interest is of a kind specified in clause 4.6.
- 4.3 For the purposes of this Part, you will have a pecuniary interest in a matter if the pecuniary interest is:
- a) your interest, or
  - b) the interest of your spouse or de facto partner, your relative, or your partner or employer, or
  - c) a company or other body of which you, or your nominee, partner or employer, is a shareholder or member.

- 4.5 You will not have a pecuniary interest in relation to a person referred to in subclauses 4.3(b) or (c):
- a) if you are unaware of the relevant pecuniary interest of your spouse, de facto partner, relative, partner, employer or company or other body, or
  - b) just because the person is a member of, or is employed by, a council or a statutory body, or is employed by the Crown, or
  - c) just because the person is a member of, or a delegate of a council to, a company or other body that has a pecuniary interest in the matter, so long as the person has no beneficial interest in any shares of the company or body.

- e) an interest you have as a member of a club or other organisation or association, unless the interest is as the holder of an office in the club or organisation (whether remunerated or not)
  - f) if you are a council committee member, an interest you have as a person chosen to represent the community, or as a member of a non-profit organisation or other community or special interest group, if you have been appointed to represent the organisation or group on the council committee
  - g) an interest you have relating to a contract, proposed contract or other matter, if the interest arises only because of a beneficial interest in shares in a company that does not exceed 10 per cent of the voting rights in the company
  - h) an interest you have arising from the proposed making by the council of an agreement between the council and a corporation, association or partnership, being a corporation, association or partnership that has more than 25 members, if the interest arises because your relative is a shareholder (but not a director) of the corporation, or is a member (but not a member of the committee) of the association, or is a partner of the partnership
  - i) an interest you have arising from the making by the council of a contract or agreement with your relative for, or in relation to, any of the following, but only if the proposed contract or agreement is similar in terms and conditions to such contracts and agreements as have been made, or as are proposed to be made, by the council in respect of similar matters with other residents of the area:
    - i) the performance by the council at the expense of your relative of any work or service in connection with roads or sanitation
    - ii) security for damage to footpaths or roads

  - l) an interest relating to an election to the office of mayor arising from the fact that a fee for the following 12 months has been determined for the office of mayor
  - m) an interest of a person arising from the passing for payment of a regular account for the wages or salary of an employee who is a relative of the person
  - n) an interest arising from being covered by, or a proposal to be covered by, indemnity insurance as a councillor or a council committee member
  - o) an interest arising from the appointment of a councillor to a body as a representative or delegate of the council, whether or not a fee or other recompense is payable to the representative or delegate.
- 4.7 For the purposes of clause 4.6, "relative" has the same meaning as in clause 4.4, but includes your spouse or de facto partner.

What disclosures must be made by a designated person?

4.8 Designated persons include:

- a) the general manager
- b) other senior staff of the council for the purposes of section 332 of the LGA
- c) a person (other than a member of the senior staff of the council) who is a member of staff of the council or a delegate of the council and who holds a position identified by the council as the position of a designated person because it involves the exercise of functions (such as regulatory functions or contractual functions) that, in their exercise, could give rise to a conflict between the person's duty as a member of staff or delegate and the person's private interest
- d) a person (other than a member of the senior staff of the council) who is a member of a committee of the council identified by the council as a committee whose members are designated persons because the functions of the committee involve the exercise of the council's functions (such as regulatory functions or contractual functions) that, in their exercise, could give rise to a conflict between the member's duty as a member of the committee and the member's private interest.

4.9 A designated person:

- a) must prepare and submit written returns of interests in accordance with clauses 4.21, and
- b) must disclose pecuniary interests in accordance with clause 4.10.

4.10 A designated person must disclose in writing to the general manager (or if the person is the general manager, to the council) the nature of any pecuniary interest the person has in any council matter with which the person is dealing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the interest.

4.11 Clause 4.10 does not require a designated person who is a member of staff of the council to disclose a pecuniary interest if the interest relates only to the person's salary as a member of staff, or to their other conditions of employment.

4.12 The general manager must, on receiving a disclosure from a designated person, deal with the matter to which the disclosure relates or refer it to another person to deal with.

4.13 A disclosure by the general manager must, as soon as practicable after the disclosure is made, be laid on the table at a meeting of the council and the council must deal with the matter to which the disclosure relates or refer it to another person to deal with.

What disclosures must be made by council staff other than designated persons?

4.14 A member of staff of council, other than a designated person, must disclose in writing to their manager or the general manager the nature of any pecuniary interest they have in a matter they are dealing with as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the interest.

4.15 The staff member's manager or the general manager must, on receiving a disclosure under clause 4.14, deal with the matter to which the disclosure relates or refer it to another person to deal with.

What disclosures must be made by council advisers?

- 4.16 A person who, at the request or with the consent of the council or a council committee, gives advice on any matter at any meeting of the council or committee, must disclose the nature of any pecuniary interest the person has in the matter to the meeting at the time the advice is given. The person is not required to disclose the person's interest as an adviser.
- 4.17 A person does not breach clause 4.16 if the person did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, that the matter under consideration at the meeting was a matter in which they had a pecuniary interest.

What disclosures must be made by a council committee member?

- 4.18 A council committee member must disclose pecuniary interests in accordance with clause 4.28 and comply with clause 4.29.
- 4.19 For the purposes of clause 4.18, a "council committee member" includes a member of staff of council who is a member of the committee.

What disclosures must be made by a councillor?

- 4.20 A councillor:
- a) must prepare and submit written returns of interests in accordance with clause 4.21, and

- b) must disclose pecuniary interests in accordance with clause 4.28 and comply with clause 4.29 where it is applicable.

Disclosure of interests in written returns

- 4.21 A councillor or designated person must make and lodge with the general manager a return in the form set out in schedule 2 to this code, disclosing the councillor's or designated person's interests as specified in schedule 1 to this code within 3 months after:
- a) becoming a councillor or designated person, and
  - b) 30 June of each year, and
  - c) the councillor or designated person becoming aware of an interest they are required to disclose under schedule 1 that has not been previously disclosed in a return lodged under paragraphs (a) or (b).
- 4.22 A person need not make and lodge a return under clause 4.21, paragraphs (a) and (b) if:
- a) they made and lodged a return under that clause in the preceding 3 months, or
  - b) they have ceased to be a councillor or designated person in the preceding 3 months.
- 4.23 A person must not make and lodge a return that the person knows or ought reasonably to know is false or misleading in a material particular.
- 4.24 The general manager must keep a register of returns required to be made and lodged with the general manager.

- 4.25 Returns required to be lodged with the general manager under clause 4.21(a) and (b) must be tabled at the first meeting of the council after the last day the return is required to be lodged.
- 4.26 Returns required to be lodged with the general manager under clause 4.21(c) must be tabled at the next council meeting after the return is lodged.
- 4.27 Information contained in returns made and lodged under clause 4.21 is to be made publicly available in accordance with the requirements of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009, the Government Information (Public Access) Regulation 2009 and any guidelines issued by the Information Commissioner.

Disclosure of pecuniary interests at meetings

- 4.28 A councillor or a council committee member who has a pecuniary interest in any matter with which the council is concerned, and who is present at a meeting of the council or committee at which the matter is being considered, must disclose the nature of the interest to the meeting as soon as practicable.
- 4.29 The councillor or council committee member must not be present at, or in sight of, the meeting of the council or committee:
- a) at any time during which the matter is being considered or discussed by the council or committee, or
  - b) at any time during which the council or committee is voting on any question in relation to the matter.
- 4.30 In the case of a meeting of a board of a joint organisation, a voting representative is taken to be present at the meeting for the purposes of clauses 4.28 and 4.29 where they participate in the meeting by telephone or other electronic means.

- 4.31 A disclosure made at a meeting of a council or council committee must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 4.32 A general notice may be given to the general manager in writing by a councillor or a council committee member to the effect that the councillor or council committee member, or the councillor's or council committee member's spouse, de facto partner or relative, is:
- a) a member of, or in the employment of, a specified company or other body, or
  - b) a partner of, or in the employment of, a specified person.

Such a notice is, unless and until the notice is withdrawn or until the end of the term of the council in which it is given (whichever is the sooner), sufficient disclosure of the councillor's or council committee member's interest in a matter relating to the specified company, body or person that may be the subject of consideration by the council or council committee after the date of the notice.

- 4.33 A councillor or a council committee member is not prevented from being present at and taking part in a meeting at which a matter is being considered, or from voting on the matter, merely because the councillor or council committee member has an interest in the matter of a kind referred to in clause 4.6.
- 4.34 A person does not breach clauses 4.28 or 4.29 if the person did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, that the matter under consideration at the meeting was a matter in which they had a pecuniary interest.

- 4.35 Despite clause 4.29, a councillor who has a pecuniary interest in a matter may participate in a decision to delegate consideration of the matter in question to another body or person.
- 4.36 Clause 4.29 does not apply to a councillor who has a pecuniary interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting if:
- a) the matter is a proposal relating to:
    - i) the making of a principal environmental planning instrument applying to the whole or a significant portion of the council's area, or
    - ii) the amendment, alteration or repeal of an environmental planning instrument where the amendment, alteration or repeal applies to the whole or a significant portion of the council's area, and
  - b) the pecuniary interest arises only because of an interest of the councillor in the councillor's principal place of residence or an interest of another person (whose interests are relevant under clause 4.3) in that person's principal place of residence, and
  - c) the councillor made a special disclosure under clause 4.37 in relation to the interest before the commencement of the meeting.
- 4.37 A special disclosure of a pecuniary interest made for the purposes of clause 4.36(c) must:
- a) be in the form set out in schedule 3 of this code and contain the information required by that form, and
  - b) be laid on the table at a meeting of the council as soon as practicable after the disclosure is made, and the information contained in the special disclosure is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 4.38 The Minister for Local Government may, conditionally or unconditionally, allow a councillor or a council committee member who has a pecuniary interest in a matter with which the council is concerned to be present at a meeting of the council or committee, to take part in the consideration or discussion of the matter and to vote on the matter if the Minister is of the opinion:
- a) that the number of councillors prevented from voting would be so great a proportion of the whole as to impede the transaction of business, or
  - b) that it is in the interests of the electors for the area to do so.
- 4.39 A councillor or a council committee member with a pecuniary interest in a matter who is permitted to be present at a meeting of the council or committee, to take part in the consideration or discussion of the matter and to vote on the matter under clause 4.38, must still disclose the interest they have in the matter in accordance with clause 4.28.

Part 5:
Non-Pecuniary Conflicts of Interest

What is a non-pecuniary conflict of interest?

- 5.1 Non-pecuniary interests are private or personal interests a council official has that do not amount to a pecuniary interest as defined in clause 4.1 of this code. These commonly arise out of family or personal relationships, or out of involvement in sporting, social, religious or other cultural groups and associations, and may include an interest of a financial nature.
- 5.2 A non-pecuniary conflict of interest exists where a reasonable and informed person would perceive that you could be influenced by a private interest when carrying out your official functions in relation to a matter.
- 5.3 The personal or political views of a council official do not constitute a private interest for the purposes of clause 5.2.
- 5.4 Non-pecuniary conflicts of interest must be identified and appropriately managed to uphold community confidence in the probity of council decision-making. The onus is on you to identify any non-pecuniary conflict of interest you may have in matters that you deal with, to disclose the interest fully and in writing, and to take appropriate action to manage the conflict in accordance with this code.
- 5.5 When considering whether or not you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter you are dealing with, it is always important to think about how others would view your situation.

Managing non-pecuniary conflicts of interest

- 5.6 Where you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter for the purposes of clause 5.2, you must disclose the relevant private interest you have in relation to the matter fully and in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the non-pecuniary conflict of interest and on each occasion on which the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises in relation to the matter. In the case of members of council staff other than the general manager, such a disclosure is to be made to the staff member's manager. In the case of the general manager, such a disclosure is to be made to the mayor.

- 5.7 If a disclosure is made at a council or committee meeting, both the disclosure and the nature of the interest must be recorded in the minutes on each occasion on which the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises. This disclosure constitutes disclosure in writing for the purposes of clause 5.6.
- 5.8 How you manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will depend on whether or not it is significant.
- 5.9 As a general rule, a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will be significant where it does not involve a pecuniary interest for the purposes of clause 4.1, but it involves:
  - a) a relationship between a council official and another person who is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that is particularly close, such as a current or former spouse or de facto partner, a relative for the purposes of clause 4.4 or another person from the council official's extended family that the council official has a close personal relationship with, or another person living in the same household
  - b) other relationships with persons who are affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that are particularly close, such as friendships and business relationships. Closeness is defined by the nature of the friendship or business relationship, the frequency of contact and the duration of the friendship or relationship

- c) an affiliation between the council official and an organisation (such as a sporting body, club, religious, cultural or charitable organisation, corporation or association) that is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that is particularly strong. The strength of a council official's affiliation with an organisation is to be determined by the extent to which they actively participate in the management, administration or other activities of the organisation
    - if you had a pecuniary interest in the matter by complying with clauses 4.28 and 4.29.
  - d) membership, as the council's representative, of the board or management committee of an organisation that is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration, in circumstances where the interests of the council and the organisation are potentially in conflict in relation to the particular matter
  - e) a financial interest (other than an interest of a type referred to in clause 4.6) that is not a pecuniary interest for the purposes of clause 4.1
  - f) the conferral or loss of a personal benefit other than one conferred or lost as a member of the community or a broader class of people affected by a decision.
- 5.10 Significant non-pecuniary conflicts of interest must be managed in one of two ways:
- a) by not participating in consideration of, or decision making in relation to, the matter in which you have the significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest and the matter being allocated to another person for consideration or determination, or
  - b) if the significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises in relation to a matter under consideration at a council or committee meeting, by managing the conflict of interest as
- 5.11 If you determine that you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter that is not significant and does not require further action, when disclosing the interest you must also explain in writing why you consider that the non-pecuniary conflict of interest is not significant and does not require further action in the circumstances.
- 5.12 If you are a member of staff of council other than the general manager, the decision on which option should be taken to manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest must be made in consultation with and at the direction of your manager. In the case of the general manager, the decision on which option should be taken to manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest must be made in consultation with and at the direction of the mayor.
- 5.13 Despite clause 5.10(b), a councillor who has a significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter, may participate in a decision to delegate consideration of the matter in question to another body or person.
- 5.14 Council committee members are not required to declare and manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in accordance with the requirements of this Part where it arises from an interest they have as a person chosen to represent the community, or as a member of a non-profit organisation or other community or special interest group, if they have been appointed to represent the organisation or group on the council committee.

Political donations

- 5.15 Councillors should be aware that matters before council or committee meetings involving their political donors may also give rise to a non-pecuniary conflict of interest.
- 5.16 Where you are a councillor and have received or knowingly benefitted from a reportable political donation:
- a) made by a major political donor in the previous four years, and
  - b) the major political donor has a matter before council,
- you must declare a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in the matter, disclose the nature of the interest, and manage the conflict of interest as if you had a pecuniary interest in the matter by complying with clauses 4.28 and 4.29. A disclosure made under this clause must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 5.17 For the purposes of this Part:
- a) a "reportable political donation" has the same meaning as it has in section 6 of the Electoral Funding Act 2018
  - b) "major political donor" has the same meaning as it has in the Electoral Funding Act 2018.
- 5.18 Councillors should note that political donations that are not a "reportable political donation", or political donations to a registered political party or group by which a councillor is endorsed, may still give rise to a non-pecuniary conflict of interest. Councillors should determine whether or not such conflicts are significant for the purposes of clause 5.9 and take the appropriate action to manage them.
- 5.19 Despite clause 5.16, a councillor who has received or knowingly benefitted from a reportable political donation of the kind referred to in that clause, may participate in a decision to delegate consideration of the matter in question to another body or person.

Loss of quorum as a result of compliance with this Part

- 5.20 A councillor who would otherwise be precluded from participating in the consideration of a matter under this Part because they have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in the matter is permitted to participate in consideration of the matter if:
- a) the matter is a proposal relating to:
    - i) the making of a principal environmental planning instrument applying to the whole or a significant portion of the council's area, or
    - ii) the amendment, alteration or repeal of an environmental planning instrument where the amendment, alteration or repeal applies to the whole or a significant portion of the council's area, and
  - b) the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises only because of an interest that a person has in that person's principal place of residence, and
  - c) the councillor discloses the interest they have in the matter that would otherwise have precluded their participation in consideration of the matter under this Part in accordance with clause 5.6.
- 5.21 The Minister for Local Government may, conditionally or unconditionally, allow a councillor or a council committee member who is precluded under this Part from participating in the consideration of a matter to be present at a meeting of the council or committee, to take part in the consideration or discussion of the matter and to vote on the matter if the Minister is of the opinion:

- a) that the number of councillors prevented from voting would be so great a proportion of the whole as to impede the transaction of business, or
- b) that it is in the interests of the electors for the area to do so.

5.22 Where the Minister exempts a councillor or committee member from complying with a requirement under this Part under clause 5.21, the councillor or committee member must still disclose any interests they have in the matter the exemption applies to, in accordance with clause 5.6.

Other business or employment

5.23 The general manager must not engage, for remuneration, in private employment, contract work or other business outside the service of the council without the approval of the council.

5.24 A member of staff must not engage, for remuneration, in private employment, contract work or other business outside the service of the council that relates to the business of the council or that might conflict with the staff member's council duties unless they have notified the general manager in writing of the employment, work or business and the general manager has given their written approval for the staff member to engage in the employment, work or business.

5.25 The general manager may at any time prohibit a member of staff from engaging, for remuneration, in private employment, contract work or other business outside the service of the council that relates to the business of the council, or that might conflict with the staff member's council duties.

5.26 A member of staff must not engage, for remuneration, in private employment, contract work or other business outside the service of the council if prohibited from doing so.

5.27 Members of staff must ensure that any outside employment, work or business they engage in will not:

- a) conflict with their official duties
- b) involve using confidential information or council resources obtained through their work with the council including where private use is permitted
- c) require them to work while on council duty
- d) discredit or disadvantage the council
- e) pose, due to fatigue, a risk to their health or safety, or to the health and safety of their co-workers.

Personal dealings with council

5.28 You may have reason to deal with your council in your personal capacity (for example, as a ratepayer, recipient of a council service or applicant for a development consent granted by council). You must not expect or request preferential treatment in relation to any matter in which you have a private interest because of your position. You must avoid any action that could lead members of the public to believe that you are seeking preferential treatment.

5.29 You must undertake any personal dealings you have with the council in a manner that is consistent with the way other members of the community deal with the council. You must also ensure that you disclose and appropriately manage any conflict of interest you may have in any matter in accordance with the requirements of this code.

Part 6:

Personal Benefit

- 6.1 For the purposes of this Part, a gift or a benefit is something offered to or received by a council official or someone personally associated with them for their personal use and enjoyment.
- 6.2 A reference to a gift or benefit in this Part does not include:
- a) a political donation for the purposes of the Electoral Funding Act 2018
  - b) a gift provided to the council as part of a cultural exchange or sister-city relationship that is not converted for the personal use or enjoyment of any individual council official or someone personally associated with them
  - c) attendance by a council official at a work-related event or function for the purposes of performing their official duties, or
  - d) free or subsidised meals, beverages or refreshments of token value provided to council officials in conjunction with the performance of their official duties such as, but not limited to:
    - i) the discussion of official business
    - ii) work-related events such as council-sponsored or community events, training, education sessions or workshops
    - iii) conferences
    - iv) council functions or events
    - v) social functions organised by groups, such as council committees and community organisations.
