

DISCLOSURE LOG OF ACCESS APPLICATIONS

Part 3 Division 4(25)(26) requires that an agency must keep a Disclosure Log to record information about formal access applications (where access is granted to some or all of the information applied for) if it is considered that the information may be of interest to other members of the public.

Application Number	Date of Application	Description of the information to which access was provided	Information now publicly available?
		Formal access applications received for this period is not deemed publicly available information due to the information being personal and private.	