NRCG seeks local artists 2020 and 2021 Exhibition Call Out for Applications

Northern Rivers Community Gallery (NRCG) is currently inviting exhibition applications across all art forms from artists, artist groups and curators for the 2021 exhibition program as well as limited spaces for in this years' program, 2020.

Centrally located in the heart of the Northern Rivers in the coastal township of Ballina, the gallery is just a short distance from Byron Bay, and one hour's drive from the Gold Coast. NRCG provides a unique opportunity for artists to present works to new and diverse audiences in a beautiful heritage space.

The Gallery features four professional exhibition spaces equipped with a professional lighting and hanging system, which includes two-channel audio/video capability in Gallery space 4.

The NRCG welcomes proposals across all art forms including but not limited to: visual arts, sculpture, craft, design, digital media, performance, installation/site specific works and cultural heritage that display innovative ideas and approaches to contemporary arts practice. Successful applicants will be offered a place in the eight-week exhibition cycle between August 2020 and Dec 2021.

For more information or to complete an online application visit nrcgballina.com.au and go to Apply to Exhibit.

First round Applications close Monday 30 June 2020. Second round closes Sunday 31 August 2020.

Apply online via the Gallery website nrcgballina.com.au. The Northern Rivers Community Gallery is located at 44 Cherry Street Ballina and is open Wednesday to Friday from 10am until 4pm and is temporarily closed weekends.
