

Burns Point Ferry Road Reopened and Ferry Operations Resumed

UPDATE 12.30PM MONDAY 14 DECEMBER

Burns Point Ferry Road has reopened and the Burns Point Ferry has resumed operations.

Earlier this morning Council was instructed by NSW Police to close Burns Point Ferry Road due to localised flooding caused by a king tide combined with ongoing rainfall. As a result the Burns Point Ferry temporarily ceased operations.

Council thanks the community for their patience and understanding during this time.

For updates on the ferry status and road closure information visit www.myroadinfo.com.au

Authorised By	Emma Browning Manger Engineering Works - Acting
Distribution	Local media