

Media Release

2 July 2020

Jugan Dandii - Weaving Circle III

Join master weavers Tania Marlowe and Deb Cole from Jugan Dandii for a weekend weaving circle in a relaxing group atmosphere at Ignite Studios.

Over the two-day sessions, students will learn weaving techniques and craft with 'random weave' using local Bangalow palm fibre to create baskets, light shades and sculptural objects.

This two-day weekend workshop will be held on Saturday 1 August and Sunday 2 August from 9:30am – 12:30pm daily. Due to ongoing Covid-19 restrictions, places are limited to a maximum of 10 participants only. Workshop is open to all adults (ages 15+).

All materials provided and bookings are essential to secure a place. Book in early as these workshops are selling out.

Ignite Studios is located adjacent to the Gallery in the former Ballina Fire Station at 60 Crane Street Ballina.

To book your place visit the NRCG website at www.nrcgballina.com.au or phone the Gallery on 66810530.

The Northern Rivers Community Gallery is located at 44 Cherry Street Ballina and is open Wednesday to Friday from 10am until 4pm and weekends from 9.30am until 2.30pm.

For further information contact the Gallery on telephone 02 6681 0530 or visit www.nrcgballina.com

Authorised By	Craig Brown Manager Community Facilities	Media Spokesperson	Melitta Firth (Acting) Gallery Coordinator 02 6681 6167
Distribution	Local Media

Image 1: Jugun Dandii Woven Baskets, NRCG Workshop, 2019.